No remedy is to be depended on except the knife, but this with occasional examination is usually sufficient.

The eggs from which they are batched, are deposited in the summer by a slender, four winged moth, of a dark blue color, somewhat resembling a wasp, at the place where the soil covers the root. When batched it bores its way into the bark, and continues eating it until its growth is perfected. A day now devoted to peach trees may save many of them.

The above-named Lodies we are personliny ac-The above-named Ledies we are personly a co-quainted with, and know that for several years while we lived in Medina, they were great suf-ferers. Miss S, has been so badly afflicted that it was with difficulty she was able to stand upon her feet. A few bottles of Calcolicon entirely cured her of her complaint. My wife received great benefit from this medicine. We recommend it to the Ladies of this Country, as a safe and ef-ficient remedy for the many complaints they are subject to.

Zancsville, O., May 25th, 1857.

This is to certify that, being under the impression that I was troubled with a Tape Worm,—I took, by the advice of a friend, Three Doses only of "Barrel's Indian Worm Confections," the effect of which was to expel 14 large worms, more than twelve inches in length, and an innumerable quantity of smaller worms. I consider this the Best Worm Medicine ever offered to the public.
